Theurgy or Ars Sacerdotalis is the most sublime occupation that man can ever aim at. It is distinguished from Priesthood by the fact that the latter is accorded by God gratis, whereas the former is partly an achievement of man and partly a Divine Gift. In other words, the Theurgist prepares himself cultivating the necessary virtues in himself, in order to be worthy of such a gift, if and when God wills so.

This “Anthology of Theurgic Operations” was initially composed in Greek, for the use of the RoseCroix of the Orient in Greece.

It is sure that some of its readers – those who prefer discussions to action – will wonder whether this Sacramentary is “traditional”.

This is our answer: even the so-called “traditional” rituals are written by man’s hand; the property of “traditional” alone does not ensure the quality and the potential of them. The Initiation of the RoseCroix of the Orient recommends two Sacramentaries: the famous “Sacramentaire” by Robert Ambelain or the 3-volume work by Abbé Julio. None is “traditional” in the way that these people would like… Also, none has been translated in Greek.

So, this Sacramentary was primarily composed in order to provide a basic tool needed by the Greek-speaking R*CO. Both Ambelain’s Sacramentaire and the work by Abbé Julio were taken into consideration – and also the relevant prayers of the Orthodox Church Prayer Book.

Some of the invocations manifested a kind of outdated inner attitude, so they had to be updated, in order to be used by the R*CO of today.

Regarding the structure of the Ritual Operations, the one of the “Encheiridion of Rosicrucian Theurgy” by Eques a Servitio Dei was followed, as this was the only one that observed the “Law of uniformity”, as we will soon explain.

Structure of Operations

A.

As the reader will note, all operations have the same structure. They start with the same prologue (header) and – after the particular invocation – they end with the same epilogue (footer). Also, an expressed or implied hagiographical citation is included.

1. Declaration that the operation is celebrated for the Glory of God and for the Love of Humanity. This attracts the attention of the Divine Ministers.

2. The three Psalm verses that follow make a reference to the three Spiritual planes. With these verses the Theurgist accomplishes his attunement with the perpetual Theurgic procedure.

3. Invocation to God, the provider of all Divine gifts. The invocation of God as “Light” accords with the Gospel of St. John and also with the “Credo”.

4. Special invocation with expressed or implied hagiographical citation, depending on the case (healing, request for a gift etc).

5. The traditional ending of the R•CO: “By our Lord…” (this has been slightly adapted to accent the “victorious” aspect of the Divine Logos).

This similar structure ensures that all special ritual operations are ruled by two occult laws:

• The law of the uniformity of the operated act
• And the law of “hagiographical citation”.

In every operation, the “law of uniformity” prepares in a certain way the visible and the invisible plane for the celebrated operation, by gradual familiarity. This law is also related to the function of egregores.

The “law of hagiographical citation” is described like this by Ambelain, in the introduction of his “Sacramentaire”:

“The majority of these prayers is based on an occult law that Agrippa evokes in his famous “Philosophia Occulta”. The Holy Scripture is a collection of historic events, whose roots are in the world of archetypes. In order to make every prayer more efficacious, it is necessary to attach it to the fact that is its celestial archetype…”¹

B.

Furthermore, we should make a special notice to the structure of the Consecrations. An operation of consecration has usually two parts: an exorcism and a blessing (in this order). In this “Anthology” we have implemented an opposite approach.

Why? Because in the “traditional” approach, the elemental is first coerced (by means of the exorcism) and then blessed. We firmly believe that such a coercive attitude towards an elemental insults the notion of harmony that has to reign in all Theurgic Operations.

In our approach, the elemental is firstly blessed: it receives benediction, grace, mercy from God; only then comes the exorcism, which – in an Operation of Benediction – is nothing else but dedication to God’s service.

In this way harmony is preserved.

Instructions for the celebration

The theurgic operations included are normally celebrated in a Temple, in the frame of a complete ritual act. However, it is possible that they are celebrated in a concise way, out of the frame of a temple, like simple prayers. In this case, the Celebrant opens the operation “in the Name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” and closes with the phrase “By our Lord...”.

Martinists may celebrate these operations according to the concise procedure revealed to them in the third degree.

Anyway, we recommend that these operations are celebrated in a temple, placed inside a complete ritual. Says Ambelain in the introduction of his “Sacramentaire”:

“Let us not be surprised if we see the present Sacramentary completed by an ensemble of ritual forms. The reader should not neglect this, under the pretence of a well-intended simplicity. The rites are the vehicles and the amplifiers of the human Logos”.2

The operations included in this Anthology are of three kinds:

a. Consecrations
b. Operations of benediction, of protection etc
c. Exorcisms.

The first two kinds are safe. Traditionally they are celebrated by people that have received a kind of sacerdotal ordination; however, any person of good faith may celebrate them as simple prayers.

But, as far as exorcisms are regarded, BEWARE! Exorcisms are essentially acts of violence against negative spiritual forces that will do everything to destroy the one that molests them. And, because the negative forces are chaotic, they will attack the offender in a chaotic way. This is the reason of the phenomenon of choc-en-retour that has destroyed the lives of many. Let the reader consider that even priests are not allowed to perform exorcisms, unless they have received a special training and they fulfill the prerequisites of purity and power.

In any case, if the reader should ever decide to perform any exorcism, he should celebrate the General Operation of Protection both before and after the exorcism, and then he should recite the Psalm of 72 verses, in order to avoid (or to minimize) the consequences of a possible choc-en-retour.

On Altars and Temples

We do not have the right to reveal the Altar setup of the RȘCO. However, we will quote some excerpts from three works that approach this subject from a different angle.

a. Excerpt from Initiation by Th. Terestchenko.
“In order to operate the Work of the Art, you have to make the Temple. The room should have enough light and fresh air and should not be too spacious. The walls should be white, without ornaments. This will be the Temple of the Spirit, where the Initiate will concentrate and accomplish the Rites.

“At the center of the Temple there will be an Altar: a table covered with a white linen cloth, discretely adorned with the symbols that express the aspirations of the Initiate. On the Altar, aback, there will be a Symbol: a Sun, a Cross, or anything appropriate. […]

“The four TAROT tools – the Sword, the Calyx, the Wand and the Pantacle – will be made or bought for this. A censer, a case for the incense, another one for the coal.

“A white, linen alb.

“All these have to be consecrated before use.

“In order to symbolize the Holy Trinity, we place three candles: the central one is a little higher than the other two. Besides, the Initiate will light a small candle that he will place on the right side of the Altar: this will symbolize his soul. […]

“The Emblem will be studiously made according to the rules of the art, as a protection against the lower entities that will be attracted by the perfume. […]

“You may use the Pentagram or the Hexagram, but above all the Cross.
"Always draw around you three circles [...] and crosses at the four cardinal points [...]."

B. Let us see what Robert Ambelain says in his "Sacramentaire":

"According to the tradition that was communicated to us, the Celebrant takes off the maximum of his profane cloths and all metal objects. He wears a white, linen alb and a cordon of the same colour. He wears sandals reserved strictly for his Operations.

"Regarding the simple prayers, he works with his head uncovered. In the case of exorcisms, he puts on his head a hood attached on the alb. [...]"

"The Altar is set up like this:

"It is covered with a silken cloth of gold colour, on which the Gospel of Saint John is placed, opened at the first page of the first chapter. On each side there is a beeswax candle. The original document writes nothing about incense, but we think that it is an omission of the copyist: a censer and an incense-case will promote the creation of a mysterious and more efficacious ambience..."

C. Mouni Sadhu (Dmitri Sudoski), in his Theurgy, the Art of Effective Worship, presents a third approach. The writer speaks about an circular Altar, covered with a white cloth. On it a Crucifix is placed, behind of which there is a double candleholder.

However, we have to say that all Altars are not equivalent. There is a kind of ritual operations that is based on the equilibrium of the Ternary; there is another one that functions in virtue of the polarity of the Duality. We will say nothing more on that. The above excerpts should be adequate objects of meditation and reflection for the spirit of the true Initiate…

On this edition

The present edition of this book is not an exact translation of the first, Greek edition. Basically, it follows the same lines; but it has been modified (or amended), taken into consideration the actual experience of the practicing members of the RICO Chapter “Omega” of Athens. For example, in some cases there was a slight modification of expression; some operations included in the Greek edition were never used, so they were removed; other operations had to be included, in order to cover real needs etc.

All hagiographical citations are taken from the “Webster” edition of the Holy Scripture.

Special mention has to be done to the Greek word «ΛΟΓΟΣ» (“Logos”), that is usually translated as “Word” (or “Verbe in French). We thought that none of these words conveys the full meaning of the Greek word, so we decided to keep this word “as is”.

The sacred exclamation “Jesus Christus Vincit”, used in many operations, is a phrase still in use in the Greek Church. (It was also used by the Demetrius Semelas’ “Frères d’Orient”). The Greek phrase cannot be accurately translated in English, so we preferred to render it in Latin.

Greater and Lesser Mysteries

By Theodoulos, S*I*I*

In the general current of the traditional European esoterism we recognize two fundamental branches, that could be considered as two successive stages:

- Lesser Mysteries or Royal Art
- Greater Mysteries or Sacerdotal Art.

The Lesser Mysteries are basically focused on the individual and they aim at the development of the potentialities of human being. Here, we come across ideas like moral and spiritual cultivation, strengthening of Will, exaltation of personality etc.

On the contrary, the Greater Mysteries are focused on God. Here, the moral and spiritual cultivation is sine-qua-non; here, the fundamental ideas are the abandonment of the self to the Hands of God, the abnegation of personality and the conquest of “impersonality”, the total and irrevocable dedication to the service of the Divine Plan.

In the Lesser Mysteries man works for his own evolution. In the Greater Mysteries he comes out of himself in order to be dedicated to the comfort of his fellow-people from the consequences of the Fall and to a constant and lifelong attempt to restitute this Fall.
Known expressions of the Greater Mysteries are – amongst others – the Rosicrucianism of the Orient and Martinism.

The object of the Greater Mysteries is the so-called Sacerdotal Art. This is distinguished from the Ecclesiastic Priesthood by the fact that the Priest – having apostolic succession – may celebrate the 7 Sacraments of the Church, as well as a whole series of other Operations, like consecrations, healing, exorcisms, prayers for protection etc.

On the other hand, the Adept of the Greater Mysteries may not celebrate Sacraments, but he may pray ritually for his fellow-men, sometimes with impressive results. Let us think that many thaumaturgic Saints were not Priests; they were just men with dedication...

Instrument of the Sacerdotal Art is the Word. The Adept of the Greater Mysteries does not seek the “Lost Word” because he has already found it. He knows how to use it, how to put it into God’s service, for the benefit of Mankind.

Vehicle or channel of the Word is the used Ritual. Rituals do not have any “magical force” by themselves. Their force is in the Word, which is channeled and expressed by means of the Ritual:

- towards the “above” in order to accumulate power
- and towards the “below” in order to accomplish the goal, and always for the service of God’s Will.
The Commandment of the Incarnate Word is clear and incontestable:

“Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely you have received, freely give.” (Matth. 10.8).

And this Commandment is so valid, that Jesus Christ got angry when His disciples were not able to observe it in one occasion, and He exclaimed:

“O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?” (Matth. 17.17)

From these two passages we conclude that God needs Servants for the service of His Plan for Mankind. “The harvest is great and the workmen are few; supplicate therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth workmen unto his harvest.” (Matth. 9.37-38).

In this spirit we greet this English edition of the “Anthology of Theurgic Operations of the Rose Croix of the Orient”; we are sure that it will be a useful tool in the hands of the dedicated, Unknown Servants of the Divine Will...

Amen!
A’: Preparatory Operations

Ritual Bath

If possible, before celebrating his Operation, the Theurgist takes holy water with his palms and says the following Prayers:

* Lord, Jesus Christ, cleanse me, so that I may serve Your Glory!
* Lord, Jesus Christ, cleanse me, so that I may serve Your Work!
* Lord, Jesus Christ, cleanse me, so that I may serve Your Humanity!

“Celestial King, Paraclet, Spirit of the Truth, Omnipresent and in everything, The Treasure of goods and provider of Life, Come and dwell in us and cleanse us from every stain And save our Souls, oh Merciful God!”

He then washes:

- his face,
- his chest,
- his belly,
- his hands
- and his feet, saying each time:

---

4 This is a traditional Greek Orthodox Prayer. It is included in Muni Sadhu’s Theurgy, p. 72.
Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name.
Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Having finished, he says:

* By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Ritual Vesting

The Celebrant puts on a white alb or robe, saying:

✶ Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name. Make me worthy to whiten my cloths and wear the robe of incorruption, worn by all Your worthy Servants. Amen.

✶ By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.

He wears his Emblem on the chest, saying:

✶ Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name. May the most sacred Monogram of Your Holy Name, as well as the sign of Your holy and saint Cross, be engraved on my heart like an imperishable sigil. Amen.

✶ By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Consecration of the Altar

Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name.
Father, Logos, Spirit, Trinity in Monad; Flamboyant Spiritual Sun, Source of all Benedictions; look down, Lord, and bless this Altar, that was assembled for Your worship in Spirit and Truth and for the Service of Your Work of Universal Reintegration; and deign to lavish the life-giving currents of Your Divine Grace to the Celebrant and to Your whole Humanity.
Amen.

Consecration of the Carpet

Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name.
May this Carpet be a symbol of my proper spiritual attitude according to Your Saint Will, as well as a symbol of the most powerful protection of Your Omnipotent Name and of Your Divine Ministers.
Amen.

* By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John.
Amen. 5

5 These two Operations are celebrated every time during the “Opening”.

~ 26 ~
General Invocation, to precede all operations of Consecration \(^6\)

⋆ Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name.
Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come to you.
God our Lord, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;
God our Lord, Jesus Christ, Emmanuel, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds (æons),
God our Lord, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made;
God our Lord, who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man;
God our Lord, who was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered, and was buried, and \(^6\) Not included in the Greek edition of this book.

If the Theurgist is to celebrate a series of consecrations, this Invocation is recited only once.
the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures,
God our Lord, who ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
God our Lord, who from thence he shall come again, with glory, to judge the quick and the dead; and whose kingdom shall have no end.
God our Lord, the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spake by the prophets.
God our Lord, who founded the one holy catholic and apostolic Church;
God our Lord, who ordained one baptism for the remission of sins;
God our Lord, the Provider of the life of the world to come. Amen.

Listen to Your Servant’s prayer and deign to accord Your gratification for the celebrated Operation and also Your Holy Benediction, because You art the sole provider of Goods.

“Who shall ascend upon the hill of the LORD? and who shall stand in his holy place?
He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul to vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.”

7 Psalms, 24.3-5.

Consecration of a Theurgic “Panchreston”\footnote{It is a general purpose (non-specialised) talisman. The word “Panchreston” means “for every use” in Greek.}

- General Invocation of Consecration (\textit{p. 27})

\textbf{Citations}

\textbullet\ Lord, My God, my power is in Your Name.

Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel says:

“And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and the door shall be opened to you.

For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, the door shall be opened.”\footnote{Luke 11.9-10.}

“Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

Verily, verily, I say to you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father.

And whatever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.”\footnote{John 14.11-14.}

“Have faith in God.

Healing Operation

Just before this operation, the Celebrant may invoke the Angels of Healing and Archangel Raphael (and light a consecrated candle for them).

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Healer, commands:

“Ο Heal the sick * J.C.V, Ο cleanse the lepers * J.C.V, Ο raise the dead * J.C.V, Ο cast out demons * J.C.V: Ο freely ye have received, freely give * J.C.V.”26 27

Then:

“And when Jesus had entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, beseeching him,
And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick with the palsy, grievously tormented.
And Jesus saith to him, Ο I will come and heal him, because * J.C.V.
The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof:

26 Matth. 10.8.
27 The signs describe the accompanying gestures: Ο circular; * a cross. J.C.V. = “Jesus Christus Vincit” (ΙΗΣΟΥΣ ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ ΝΙΚΑ): a dynamic phrase still in use in the Greek Orthodox Tradition (and also used by the Frères d’Orient).
O but speak the word only, and my servant will be healed, because * J.C.V.

For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. [...]

And Jesus said to the centurion, O Depart; and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee, because * J.C.V. And his servant was healed in the same hour.

And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick with a fever.

And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered to them.

When the evening was come, they brought to him many that were possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick;

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, He himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses.” 28

the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”29)

After the technique of the Theurgic Breath, he blesses:

Healing of animals

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same territories, and cried to him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously afflicted with a demon. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshiped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table. Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that very hour.”

Operation for Spiritual Conversion

_Just before this operation, the Celebrant may invoke the Angels of Conversion (and light a consecrated candle for them)._

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,
And desired from him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he should find any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.
And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined around him a light from heaven:
And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the goads.
And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.
And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth,

And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all that call on thy name.

But the Lord said to him, Go, for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

For I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

And Ananias went, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared to thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.
And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. 39

“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness.”
“And from the days of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.”

Request for the means of sustenance

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel says:
“No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than raiment?

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

Which of you by anxious care can add one cubit to his stature?

And why are ye anxious for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow? they toil not, neither do they spin?

And yet I say to you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clotheth the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
Therefore be not anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or, with what shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Therefore be not anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be solicitous for the things of itself. Sufficient to the day is its own evil."45

Forming a Spiritual Relationship
(An Elus Cohen Operation, slightly adapted)

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Eternal, Ineffable, Most Holy Father of all, that sees and embraces everything;
Deign to answer the prayer of Your servant that kneels before You. Accord me the necessary contemplation, ardor and sincerity, so that I may express my sentiments to You.
Be favourable to me, Oh Ineffable Father, and also to all those that I come to intervene:
To my Brothers in the Order, to my parents, to my friends and foes, to the living and to the deceased, and to all Your creatures, Oh Merciful Father!
Listen to my prayer; grant me the gift to pray efficaciously to You. Here I am: I abandon myself to Your Hands. Have mercy on me: Your Will be done! Amen.

And You, oh my Patrons, Saints _____, _____, _____, spirits free from the ties of matter, you that enjoy the fruit of your Virtues, I invoke you by the Sacred Name in which you live and jubilate.
I beseech you to contribute to my eternal salvation by your protection and by your holy intercession to the Father of all Mercy, to the Divine Son, inseparable Logos and Redeemer and to the Holy Spirit, the Paraclet, provider of the Divine Gifts.
Receive for my brothers, my sisters and me the Grace of God, His Mercy, His Benevolence, that you enjoy; and help me, so that I live and die in peace, in joy and in holiness. Amen.

And you, oh pure spirit, my Guardian, positioned by the Eternal to watch over me for the Reconciliation of my spiritual being; In the Name of the God of Mercy, I implore you to come to my assistance every time that I may be in danger of succumbing to evil; every time that I will call you by my desire, sigh or meditation; every time that I will be hungry and thirsty for advice, instruction and understanding. Help me, oh Guardian Angel, to receive the assistance and the protection of the Patrons that I have invoked. Amen.

Traditionally, here the Celebrant recites the “Our Father” and then the Psalm 91 (p. 128)

* By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Invocation of a Spiritual Being

The goal of this operation is not to “make appear” a spiritual entity before the eyes of the Celebrant (!!!), but to invite the entity to the Celebrant’s life in Spirit and in Truth, so that the entity watches over him, protects him and guides him. A consecrated candle is lighted and is dedicated to this entity.

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Most Holy Father, Tri-une God, Head of the Society of the Saints,
You that bridged the unfathomable chasm between You and us, by sending us Your Divine Son as a fellow-human being for our salvation;
Deign to bridge the distance that separates me from the Saint _____, for whom I feel a particular affinity and whose association I strongly desire, in Spirit and Truth of Jesus Christ Emmanuel.
Holy father, bless the interpersonal relationship of your humble servant _____ and Saint _____, so that it becomes fruitful, for the glory of Your Divine Name and for the Love of Your Humanity.
Amen, Amen, Amen.

- In case of a Saint that had been on earth:
Saint ______ of God, my Brother,
Perfect being that has triumphed and has been crowned with a wreath of glory by Jesus Christ;

• In case of an angel:

Saint ______ of God, my Brother,
Angel of Peace and Light, messenger of Divine Glory,

• In both cases, the Celebrant continues:

I salute you by the sacred exclamation that you know and in which you rejoice: * J.C.V.! * J.C.V.! * J.C.V.!

* With this incense, receive the expression of my love and respect for you and accept the Logos that I address here and now to you.

Here I am, a feeble man amidst the predicaments and the vicissitudes of this world, I stumble and fail. Where else could I ever rely, except on God and His Divine ministers?

So, come in to my life, my Brother, in Spirit and Truth of Jesus Christ and – although you are perfect and I am imperfect – accept my association, as I firmly desire yours.

Saint of God, ______, my brother, come in the sacred exclamation * J.C.V.! \(x3\)

* By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Operation of asking a question to the Logos of Truth

With the help of this ritual the Celebrant may receive answers on matters regarding exclusively the promotion of the Divine Work and that really “burn” him internally. In other words, by this means the Theugist seeks to know the Divine Will and his own position in that.

This means should be scarcely used.
Any frivolous use – any attempt to find solutions in matters of worldly nature – constitutes a profanation and incurs serious consequences...

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“If ye continue in my word, ye are my disciples indeed;
And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”48

The Celebrant then reads the Gospel (St. John 1.1-5). Then he closes the Bible.

God our Lord, Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Spiritual Sun of Pansophia and Panagape, Whose Light and Fire is Conscience and Life to us; God that casts light in the darkness; 48 John 8.31-32.

Cast light into the darkness of my unknowing and dissipate my confusion and doubt; grant me a clear perception and inform me in a definite and certain way about the matter that torments my heart and my soul.

The Celebrant formulates the question.

Accept my question in a benevolent way and deign to answer me, revealing Your Divine Will to me by the Word contained in the most Holy Book of Your New Testament, in which I believe.

Not a vain curiosity, Lord, but a desire and an ache of soul urged me to address myself to You in this way; because You are the only True Master 49, to Whom we can resort. Amen! Amen! Amen!

Venerable Patrons, Saints _____, _____, _____, and you, my Guardian Angel, please be guards, guides and assistants and protect me from every attempt of deception by evil. Thank you.

The Lord’s Will be done!

The New Testament is opened at a “random” page. The answer is indicated “randomly” by the index finger.

Glory to You, Lord! I thank You because for one more time You revealed Your Divine Will to me, your Servant, for the Glory of Your Holy Name and for my salvation.

Request of Understanding the Spirit of the Scriptures

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?”

“Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

God our Lord, Light of Light, that shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. Omnipotent and most Benevolent Logos of the Truth, Dissipate every darkness that sin has accumulated on my being. Open, oh Lord, the eyes of my soul, of my intellect and of my spirit, so that I can understand the spirit of the Holy Scriptures and serve Your Work of Universal Reintegration with certitude and assurance.

“The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.”

“Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;”

Request of revelation in a dream

The question should regard the accomplishment of the Divine Will.

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.”

God our Lord, that lavished the force to interpret dreams to Your Servants Joseph and Daniel, as well as to their companions Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah,

You that deigned to appear in a vision to Your Servants Abimelech, Laban and Solomon,

You that warned the three Magi to return to their country by another road 56,

Listen to my prayer and remember Your promise to Your prophet Joel; deign to reveal to me the answer 55 Joel 2.28-29.

56 Matth. 2.12: “And being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.”
to this question (the question is clearly formulated), this night, by the intercession of Your Divine Ministers.

And for once more I will send hymns to You, because You will have revealed Your Divine Will and Your Truth to me. Amen.

✠ By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Request of a rare and useful document

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

“And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.”

Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Son and Logos of God, “there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known”;

Listen to the prayer of Your Servant ______ and look, so that I be able to find the book (or document) ______ (specified), as I believe that it will be useful to the further promotion of Your Work of Universal Reintegration.

But, my Lord, let it not be according to my own judgment and will, but according to Your Wisdom and Providence: I, Your Servant ______, yield myself to You; utilize me as a worthy Servant of Your Divine Will. Amen.

Prayer for the Order of the Rose Croix

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Lord Jesus Christ, God of our Salvation, that deigned to send Your Disciples to the world – and after them, their successors – granting to them the power to heal the sick, to clean the lepers, to raise the dead, to expel demons and generally to serve Your Work of Universal Reintegration, alleviating the human suffering and diffusing around them the Light of Your Truth, for the Love of our Humanity, You that introduced the hope of redemption and of eternal Life into the world of fall,

I implore, You, most Merciful Father, to empower my words with the same virtue and force as those of the King and Prophet David; listen to the prayer of Your servant ______, for the Glory of Your holy Name and for the Love of Your Humanity.

Psalm 68 (1-6)

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yes, let them exceedingly rejoice.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those who are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

Psalm 133

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garment;

As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for ever.

Prayer

God Our Lord, Provider of all goods, King of Peace, King of Salem, Providence of all Beings,

OPERATIONS OF PROTECTION

General Operation of Protection

Psalm 91

1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.
7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.
8 Only with thy eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.
9 Because thou hast made the LORD who is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;
10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him.

16 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

St Patrick’s Breastplate

I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, Through the belief in the threeness, Through the confession of the oneness of the Creator of Creation.

I arise today Through the strength of Christ's birth with his baptism, Through the strength of his crucifixion with his burial, Through the strength of his resurrection with his ascension, Through the strength of his descent for the Judgment Day.

I arise today through the strength of heaven: Light of sun, radiance of moon, splendor of fire, speed of lightning, swiftness of wind, depth of sea, Stability of earth, firmness of rock.

I summon today all these powers between me and those evils, against every cruel merciless power that may oppose my body and soul, against incantations of false prophets, against black laws of pagandom against false laws of heretics, against craft of idolatry, against spells of witches and smiths and wizards, against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ to shield me today against poison, against burning, against drowning, against wounding, so that there may come to me abundance of reward.

Prayer against the threat of earthquakes

God, the Great and Terrible and Admirable, the only True, that makes and converts everything;
You watch over earth and make it tremble,
You touch the mountains and make them smoke,

61 From the Great Prayer Book of the Greek Orthodox Church.
You shake the world from its foundation, but its pillars shall not be shaken;
You shake the foundations of earth and they are positioned at Your sign;

the wrath of Your threat to us is unsubstantial, whereas the mercy of Your promise is unfathomable and inscrutable;
Remember, oh Lord, Your compassion and grant us Your mercy, because it is eternal;
Sustain the world, secure the earth, stop its shock, position the trembling globe and do not let us perish to the lowest layers of earth because of our sins.
Because You are our God; You are God of Mercy and Salvation and we glorify You, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,
That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the former rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine and thy oil.

Psalm 35

Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say to my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause they have hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, even the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses arose; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.
12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.
13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into my own bosom.
14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.
15 But in my adversity they rejoiced, and assembled themselves: yes, the abjects assembled themselves against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not:
16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.
17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.
18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among many people.
19 Let not them that are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.
20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.
21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.
22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.
23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even to my cause, my God and my Lord.

~ 145 ~
Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at my hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonor that magnify themselves against me.

Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause: yes, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

Prayer against inimical forces

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Lord Jesus Christ, Omnipotent Logos Victor, Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
Your head and Your hairs are white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes are as a flame of fire;
And Your feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and Your voice as the sound of many waters.
And You have in Your right hand seven stars: and out of Your mouth goes a sharp two-edged sword: and Your countenance is as the sun shineth in his strength.69
You, that made the first man and woman and the whole chorea of their generations in Your image and after Your likeness,
Look down unto Your fallen creature that has been trapped in the entrapments of the enemy.
We are Your image – albeit an imperfect and corrupt image – and we suffer all the horror of the spiritual privation and of the raging war that the enemy has launched against us.
So, deign to protect Your creature, expelling the enemy and his whole army far off our domicile.

69 Rev. 1.13-16.
Yes, Lord Sabaoth! Send Your Divine Hosts to defend mankind from the attacks of the enemy; expel him far off, so that – undistracted – we may walk the Path of Redemption conscientiously, for the eternal Glory of Your Holy Name. Amen.

* By our Lord Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, and by His Servant Saint John. Amen.
Operation for the purification of a place from negative influence or presence

- Invocation-Prologue (p. 88)

Lord God of our Salvation, the Son of the Living God, that rides the Cherubim and is above every Principle and Authority and Force and Domination; You are great and terrible before all that surround You in circle; You positioned the sky like an arch; You created the earth by Your Power and raised the globe by Your Wisdom; You shake the globe from its foundations till its pillars; You speak and the sun does not rise and You seal the stars; You menace the sea and it dries up; Your wrath melts principles and authorities; rocks are turned to powder by You; You crushed brass portals and broke iron bars; You bound the strong one and took his vessels, after defeating the tyrant by Your Cross; You dragged the dragon by the hook of Your incarnation and bound it with the darkness of Hades; You, my Lord, are the assurance of all those that have faith in You and the fortress of those that have conviction in You;

70 From the Great Prayer Book of the Greek Orthodox Church.
So, expel, send away, deport any diabolic operation, any devilish attack, any scheming of opposing force, from this house and those abiding in it that wear the Sign of Your Cross – this terrible Trophy against the demons – and invoke Your Holy Name.

Yes, my Lord, You that expelled irrevocably the legion of demons and the deaf and impure spirit; You that annihilated the whole convoy of our enemy and said to those devoted to You:

“Behold, I give to you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”71

Lord, guard all abiding in this house from any detriment or influence, delivering them from any terror by night, from the arrow that flieth by day; from the pestilence that walketh in darkness; from the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.72

So that Your male and female Servants and the infants, with Your assistance, being guarded by the angelic armory, may chant in accord:

“The Lord is my assistant and I will not fear what may man do to me”; and “I will not fear any evil, because You are with me.”

Because You are My God, my support, Omnipotent, Ruler, Prince of Peace, Father of the aeon to come, and Your Kingdom is eternal; and only Yours is the Kingdom and the Force and the Glory of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

2 And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

And always, night and day, he was on the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped him,

And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

(For he said to him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

Now there was there nigh to the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

And all the demons besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea.”

“14 And when they had come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.
17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.
18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that infirmity.
And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the throng, and said, Who touched my clothes?
And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
And he looked around, to see her that had done this thing.
But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

And Jesus said to him, Go, thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.”

Another Brother:

“And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth.

95 Mark 10.46-52.
And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

When he had thus spoken, he spit on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

The neighbors therefore, and they who before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

Therefore they said to him, How were thy eyes opened?

He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.”

Another Brother:

“Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.
(It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)
Therefore his sisters sent to him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.
When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it.
Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
When therefore he had heard that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.
Then after that he saith to his disciples, Let us ho into Judea again.
His disciples say to him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walketh in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
But if a man walketh in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
These things he said: and after that he saith to them, Our friend Lazarus sleepest; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleepest he will do well.

Now Jesus spoke of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in sleep.

Then said Jesus to them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go to him.

Then said Thomas, who is called Didymus, to his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

(Now Bethany was nigh to Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs distant.)

And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat in the house.

Then said Martha to Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

But I know that even now, whatever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

Jesus saith to her, Thy brother shall rise again.
Martha saith to him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
And whoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?
She saith to him, Yes, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.

And when she had so said, she went and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came to him.
Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
The Jews then who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth to the grave to weep there.
Then when Mary had come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled;
And said, Where have ye laid him? They say to him, Lord, come and see.
Jesus wept.
Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
And some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith to him, Lord, by this time his body is offensive: for he hath been dead four days.
Jesus saith to her, Said I not to thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me:
And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people who stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith to them, Loose him, and let him go.”

“In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary to see the sepulcher. And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers trembled and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said to the women, Fear ye not: for I know that ye seek Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples, that he is risen from the dead, and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulcher, with fear and great joy; and ran to bring word to his disciples.
And as they were going to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshiped him.

Then said Jesus to them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.”

And as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber:

Two Prayers to the Guardian Angel

A.

(An Elus Cohen Prayer)

Oh you, divine spirit! Spirit of force, of wisdom and of light; powerful being, with whom I desire to accomplish the most intimate union!

I call you! I invoke you! Come to my assistance; guide my steps on the Path of Salvation during this whole day. Vivify me with that Divine Love that inflames you; send me continually your intellect; give me the weapons that I need in order to vanquish my spiritual enemies.

Guide my steps towards the Truth; I abandon myself to your direction with total confidence.

Divine Logos, that have deigned to send Your Angels to guard and guide us, help me profit from their powerful operations; help me be preserved from any fall during this day.

Let me come to know intimately this spirit, to which You have particularly entrusted me.

I ask this Grace by Your Holy Blood, that has become the sigil of my reconciliation with You.

Amen!
B.

My dear Guardian Angel, my Brother, my fellow servant; guard, guide and assistant of my life;

In the Name of the Lord our God Jesus Christ Emmanuel, Omnipotent Logos Victor, I sincerely and humbly invoke you.

Here I am, amidst the darkness of this world; I dwell in confusion, in insecurity, in doubt. My erroneous judgment and acts have added more confusion to my intellect and to my heart.

My Guardian Angel, guide my aspirations, help my efforts, carry out my enterprises. Here I wonder; I have no other Master than our Lord and His Divine Ministers. So, condescend and come to my assistance and to my illumination.

My Guardian Angel, my Brother, my fellow servant, come for the Glory of God and for the ove of His humanity.

Make me worthy to receive illumination from the Lord and guide my steps to the Path of Truth and Life.

Amen.
Invocation of the Divine Love and Wisdom
(From the “Frères d’Orient))

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Fill my heart with Love, as this is my only desire and my only ardent aspiration.
Forgive me for all my trespasses, as I forgive all those that were unjust to me,
And I promise that my soul embraces all my enemies with the Love that You would deign to fill it.
Eternal Father, listen to my prayer and realize within myself the Love that I have invoked.

Jesus Christ Emmanuel, incarnate Love and Wisdom,
A humble Servant of Yours makes one step towards repentance and, before this Altar that has been consecrated for Your worship, dares to invoke You, imploring that You grant him a spark of Your Wisdom, so that error may not have a hold on his spirit and that Your Wisdom may open the horizons of Your Truth.

Ten Mystical Prayers
by Louis-Claude de Saint Martin 112

ETERNAL source of all which is, Thou who sendest spirits of error and of darkness to the untruthful, which cut them off from Thy love, do Thou send unto him who seeks Thee a spirit of truth, uniting him for ever with Thee. May the fire of this spirit consume me all the traces of the old man, and, having consumed them, may it produce from those ashes a new man, on whom Thy sacred hand shall not disdain to pour a holy Chrism! Be this the end of penitence and its long toils, and may Thy life, which is one everywhere, transform my whole being in the unity of Thine image, my heart in the unity of Thy love, my activity in the unity of the works of justice, and my thought in the unity of all lights.

Thou dost impose great sacrifices on man, only to compel him to seek in Thee all his riches and all his delights, and Thou dost force him to seek all these treasures in Thee only because Thou knowest that they alone can make him happy, for Thou alone dost possess them, who hast engendered and created them. Truly, O God of my life, I can find nowhere save in Thee the root and realisation of my being. Thou also hast said that in the heart of man alone canst Thou find Thy repose.

112 Not included in the Greek edition.
Cease not, therefore, for one instant thine operations upon me, that not only may I live, but that Thy name may be known among the nations. Thy prophets have declared that the dead cannot praise Thee; let death then never come near me, for I burn to offer Thee immortal praise; I burn with desire that the Eternal Son of Truth may never have to reproach the heart of man with the smallest clouding of Thy splendour or the least diminution of its fulness. God of my life, the utterance of whose Name accomplishes all things, restore to my nature that which Thou didst first impart to it, and I will manifest that Name among the nations, and they shall learn that Thou alone art their God, Thou alone their essential life, as Thou only art the movement and motive principle of all beings.

Do Thou sow the seed of Thy desires in the soul of man, in that field where none can contest with Thee, since it is Thou who hast brought it into existence. Sow Thy desires therein, that the soul, by the force of Thy love, may be snatched from the depths which hold it and would swallow it up for ever. Abolish for me the realm of images; scatter the fantastic barriers which place an immense interval and spread thick darkness between Thy living light and me, entombing me in their folds.

Show unto me the sacred character and the divine seal of which Thou art the custodian; pierce the centre of my soul with the fire which burns in Thee, that my soul may burn with Thee till it knows Thine ineffable life and the inexhaustible delights of Thine eternal existence. Too feeble to endure the weight of Thy Name, I leave in Thy hands the task of erecting its complete edifice and of laying Thyself its first foundations in the depths of that soul which Thou has given me for a torch, showing light to the nations, that they may no more dwell in darkness. Thanks be unto Thee, O God of peace and love! thanks be unto Thee, because Thou hast been mindful of me, and hast not willed that my soul should want, lest Thine enemies should say that the Father forges His children or is unable to deliver them.
I will approach Thee, Thou God of my being; I will approach Thee, all unclean as I am; I will show myself with confidence before Thee; I will come unto Thee in the name of Thine eternal existence, in the name of my life, in the name of Thy holy alliance with man. This threefold offering shall be for Thee an acceptable sacrifice, on which Thy Spirit shall send down its divine fire, to consume and transport it to Thy sacred abode, all charged and filled with the desires of a needy soul sighing only after Thee.

Lord, Lord! when shall I hear Thee utter in the abyss of my soul that consoling and living word which calls on man by his name, proclaiming his enrolment in the heavenly army, and Thy will that he should be numbered among Thy servants? By the power of that holy word shall I find myself speedily encompassed by the eternal memorials of Thy power and love, with which I shall boldly advance against Thine enemies, and they shall flee before the dread lightnings flashing from Thy victorious word. Alas, O Lord! shall a man of misery and darkness cherish such high aspirations, such proud hopes? In place of smiting the enemy, must he not seek only a shield from their blows?

Furnished no longer with shining arms, is he not, as a despicable object, reduced to tears of shame and ignominy in the thickets of his retreat, unable to show himself before the day? In place of those triumphant anthems which once followed him in his conquests, is he not doomed only to be heard amid sighs and groans? Vouchsafe at least one boon, O Lord, that when soever Thou searchest my heart and my reins, Thou shalt never find them void of Thy praise and love. I feel, and would feel unceasingly, that all time is enough for Thy praise, that to accomplish this holy work in a manner which is worthy of Thee, my entire being must be possessed and set in motion by Thine eternity.

Grant, therefore, O God of all life and all love, that my soul may reinforce its weakness with Thy strength; permit it to enter into a holy league with Thee, by which I shall be invincible in the sight of my enemies, which shall bind me so to Thee by the desires of my heart and of Thine, that Thou shalt ever find me as zealous for Thy service and glory as Thou, O Lord, art eager for my deliverance and beatitude.
Spouse of my soul! by whom it has conceived the desire of wisdom, aid me Thyself to give birth to this well-beloved son, whom I can never cherish sufficiently. So soon as he beholds the light, immerse him in the pure baptismal waters of Thy life-giving Spirit, and be he ever numbered among the faithful members of the Church of the Most High. Like a tender mother, do Thou take him in Thine arms till his feeble limbs have strength for his support, and shield him from all that is harmful.

Spouse of my soul! unknown except by the humble, I do homage to Thy power, and I would not confide to other hands than Thine this son of love whom Thou hast given me. Nourish him Thyself, watch over his early steps instruct him when he grows in the honour which he owes to his Father, that his days may be long on the earth; inspire him with respect and love for the might and the virtues of Him who hath given him being.

Spouse of my soul! inspire me also, me first, to nourish this precious child unceasingly with spiritual milk, which Thou has formed Thyself in my breast. May I ever behold in my son the image of his Father, in his Father the likeness of my son, and of all those whom Thou mayst engender within me through the unbroken course of the eternities.

Spouse of my soul!: known only to the sanctified, be Thou at once the mentor and model of this child of Thy Spirit, that in all times and places his works and example may proclaim his heavenly origin. Place Thou also at length on his head the crown of glory, and he shall be an everlasting monument before the peoples of the majesty of Thy Name.

Spouse of my soul! such are the delights which Thou preparest for those who love Thee and seek for union with Thee. Perish everlastingly him who would tempt me to break our sacred alliance! Perish everlastingly him who would persuade me to prefer another spouse!

Spouse of my soul! take me Thyself for Thine own child; let me be one with him in Thine eyes, and pour on us each all graces which we cannot both receive from Thy love. I can live no more if the voices of myself and my son be forbidden to unite for the eternal celebration of Thy praises in canticles, like inexhaustible rivers ever engendered by the sense of Thy wonders and Thy power ineffable.
How should I dare, O Lord, for one instant to gaze on myself without trembling at the horror of my misery! I dwell in the midst of my own iniquities, the fruit of all manner of excesses, which have become even as a vestment; I have outraged all my laws, I have misused my soul, I have abused my body; I have turned, and do turn daily, to an ill account all the graces which Thy love showers continually on Thine ungrateful and faithless creature.

To Thee should I sacrifice all, giving nothing unto time, which in Thy sight is like an idol, void of life and understanding; yet I devote all unto time and nothing unto Thee. Thus do I cast myself beforehand into the abyss of confusion, given over to idolatrous worship, where Thy name is not known. I have acted like the senseless and ignorant of this world, who expend all their efforts to annul the dread decrees of justice and to render this place of probation no longer one of toil and suffering in their eyes. God of peace and God of truth, if the confession of my faults be insufficient for their remission, remember Him who took them on Himself, washing them in the blood of His body, His soul, and His love. Like fire, which consumes all material and impure substances, like this fire which is His image, He returns to Thee, free from all stains of earth.
In Him and by Him alone can the work of my purification and rebirth be fulfilled. In Him alone can Thy sacred majesty endure to regard man, through whom also Thou willest our cure and our salvation. Gazing with the eyes of His love, which cleanses all, Thou dost see no longer any deformity in man, but only that divine spark which is in Thine own likeness, which Thy sacred ardour draws perpetually to itself, as a property of Thy divine source. O Lord, Thou canst contemplate only that which is true and pure as Thyself; evil is beyond the reach of Thine exalted sight, and hence the evil man is like one whom Thou rememberest no more, whom Thine eyes cannot fix, since he has no longer any correspondence with Thee.

In this abyss of horror I have, notwithstanding, dared to dwell; there is no other place for man who is not immersed in the abyss of Thy compassion. Yet no sooner does he turn his heart and eyes from the depths of iniquity than he finds himself in that ocean of mercy which encompasses all Thy creatures. So will I bow myself before Thee in my shame and the sense of my misery; the fire of my suffering shall dry up within me the abyss of my sinfulness, and there shall remain for me only the eternal kingdom of Thy mercy.
Take back my will, O Lord, take back my will; for if I can suspend it one instant before Thee, the torrents of Thy life and light, having nothing to resist them, shall pour impetuously within me. Help me to break down the woeful barriers which divide me from thee; arm me against myself; triumph within me over all Thine enemies and mine by subduing my will. O Eternal Principle of all joy and of all truth! when shall I be so renewed as no longer to be conscious of self, save in the permanent affection of Thine exclusive and vivifying will?

When shall every kind of privation appear to me a profit and advantage, by preserving me from all bondage, and leaving me ample means to bind myself to the freedom of Thy spirit and wisdom? When shall evils appear to me as favours extended by Thee, as so many opportunities of Victory, so many occasions of receiving from Thy hand the crowns of glory which Thou dost distribute to all those who fight in Thy name? When shall all advantages and joys of this life become to me as so many snares, unceasingly set by the enemy that he may establish in our heart a god of lying and seduction in place of that God of peace and truth who should reign there for ever? When, infine, shall the holy zeal of Thy love and the ardour of my union with Thee rule me to renounce with delight my life, my happiness, with all affections foreign to this sole end of Thy creature man, so loved by Thee that Thou hast given Thyself all for him, that he might be inflamed by Thine example?
I know, O Lord, that whosoever is not transported by this holy devotion is not worthy of Thee, and has not yet made the first step in Thy path. The knowledge of Thy will and the solicitude of the faithful never to depart from it for a moment, herein is the one, the true resting-place for the soul of man; he cannot enter therein without being filled immediately with rapture, as if all his being were renewed and revivified in all its faculties by the springs of Thine own life, nor can he withdraw therefrom without beholding himself given over forthwith to all the horrors of uncertainty, danger, and death.

Hasten, God of consolation, hasten, God of power, to communicate to my heart one of those pure movements of Thy holy and invincible will! One only is needed to establish the reign of Thine eternity, and for constant and universal resistance of all alien wills which combine in my soul, mind, and body to give battle thereto. Then shall I abandon myself to my God in the sweet effusion of my faith, then shall I proclaim His wonderful works. Men are not worthy of Thy wonders, or to contemplate the sweetness of Thy wisdom, the profundity of Thy counsels; and I, vile insect that I am, can I even dare to name them, who merit only visitations of justice and wrath? Lord, Lord! may the star of Jacob rest for a moment upon me; may Thy holy light be kindled in my thought, and Thy will most pure in my heart!
Hearken, my soul, hearken, and be consoled in thy distress! There is a mighty God who undertakes to heal all thy wounds. He alone has this supreme power, and He exercises it only towards those who acknowledge that He possesses it and is its zealous administrator. Come not before him in disguise like the wife of Jeroboam whom the prophet overwhelmed with reproaches; come rather with the humility and confidence which should be inspired by a sense of thy frightful evils, and of that Universal Power which willeth not the death of a sinner, since it is He who created souls.

Let time fulfil its law upon thee in all the things of time; speed not thy work by disorders; delay it not by false desires and vain speculations, the heritage of the fool. Concerned alone with thine interior cure, thy spiritual deliverance, collect with care the scant forces which each temporal period develops within thee; make use of these secret motions of life to draw nearer daily unto Him who already would possess thee in His breast, and share with thee the sweet freedom of a being who enjoys fully the use of all his faculties without ever encountering a hindrance. Whencever these happy ecstasies transport thee, raise thyself on thy bed of sorrow, and cry unto this God of mercy and almightiness: Lord, wilt Thou leave to languish in bondage and shame this former image of Thyself, whom the ages may have buried under their dust but have never been able to efface?
It dared to misconceive Thee in those days when it dwelt in the splendour of Thy glory.

Thou hadst only to close the eye of Thine eternity, and it was plunged from that instant into darkness, as into the depths of the abyss. Since that deplorable lapse it has become the daily scorn of all its enemies, who not contented to cover it with derision, have filled it with their poisons, have loaded it with chains so that it could no longer defend itself, but became an easier prey to their envenomed darts. Lord, Lord! is not this long and humiliating ordeal sufficient for man to recognise Thy justice and do homage to Thy power? Has not this infected mass of its enemy's contempt enervated long enough the image of Thyself to open his eyes and convince him of his illusions? Dost Thou not fear that in the end these corrosive substances may entirely efface its imprint and place it beyond recognition?

The enemies of Thy light and Thy wisdom would not fail to confound this long chain of my degradations with Thine eternity itself; they would believe their reign of horror and disorder is the sole abode of truth; they would claim themselves victorious over Thee and possessed of Thy kingdom. Permit not, therefore, longer, O God of zeal and jealousy, the profanation of Thine image; the desire of Thy glory fills me more than any desire of myhappiness apart from that glory of Thine Rise on Thy throne immortal, the throne of Thy wisdom, ablaze with the marvels of Thy power; enter for a moment that holy vineyard which Thou hast planted from all eternity; pluck but one of those vivifying grapes which it produces unceasingly; let the sacred and regenerating juice flow upon my lips; it will moisten my parched tongue, it will enter into my heart, it will bear to it both joy and life, it will penetrate all my members and will make them strong and healthy.

Then shall I be quick, agile, vigorous as on that first day when I came forth from Thy hands. Then shall Thine enemies, frustrated in their hopes, blush with shame and tremble with fear and rage to see their opposition against Thee made vain and the accomplishment of my sublime destiny despite their daring and persistent efforts. Hearken then, O my soul! hearken, and be consoled in thy distress! A mighty God there is who hath undertaken the healing of thy wounds.
I present myself at the gates of the temple of my God, and I will quit not this humble asylum of the indigent till I have received my daily bread from the Father of my life. Behold the mystery of this bread! I have tasted thereof, and I will proclaim its sweetness to unborn nations. The Eternal God of Beings; the sacred title taken by Him who is made flesh that He might be manifested to the visible and invisible nations; the spirit of Him at whose Name every knee shall bow, in heaven, on earth, and in hell; such are the three immortal elements which compose this daily bread. It is multiplied unceasingly, like the immensity of beings who are nourished thereby, and, whatsoever be their number, never can they diminish its abundance.

It has developed in me the eternal germs of my life, and has enabled them to circulate in my veins the sacred sap of my original and divine roots. The four elements which compose it have dispelled darkness and confusion from the chaos of my heart; they have restored to it the living and holy light; their creative force has transformed me into a new being, and I have become the custodian and administrator of their sacred characters and life-giving signs. Therefore, as His angel and minister have I shown myself in all regions, to make known the glory of Him who hath chosen man; I have reviewed all the work of His hands and have distributed to each of them those signs and characters which He has impressed on me in order that they might be transmitted to them, and to confirm the properties and powers which they have received.

But my ministry has not been confined to operation on the regular works of Eternal Wisdom; I have approached whatsoever was deformed, and have set on these fruits of disorder the signs of justice and vengeance attached to the secret powers of my election; those which I could snatch from corruption I have offered as a holocaust to the supreme God, and I have composed my perfumes of the pure praises of my mind and heart, so that all which lives may confess that the homage, the glory, the honour are due unto this sole supreme God as the source of power and justice. I have exclaimed in the transports of my love: Blessed is man, because Thou hast elected him as the seat of Thine authority and the minister of Thy glory in the universe. Blessed is man, because Thou hast permitted him to feel, even in the depths of his essence, the penetrating activity of Thy divine life. Blessed is man, because he may dare to offer Thee a sacrifice of thanksgiving founded in the ineffable sentiment of all the wishes of Thy holy infinity.

Powers of the material world! powers of the physical universe! not thus hath God treated you! He has constituted you the simple agents of His laws and the forces operating for the fulfilment of His designs. Hence is there no other being in Nature which does not second Him in His work and cooperate in the execution of His plans. But He is not made known to you as the God of peace and the God of love; at the moment when He brought you into being ye were disturbed by the consequences of rebellion, since He ordained man to subdue and govern you. Still less, ye perverted and corrupt powers, has He dispensed to you those favours with which He has deigned to overwhelm man. Ye have failed to preserve those which were granted you by virtue of your origin; ye dreamed of a brighter lot and a more splendid privilege than to be the objects of His tenderness, from which moment ye have deserved only to be the victims of His justice. To man alone has He confided the treasures of His wisdom; on this being after His own heart has He centred all His affection and all His powers.

Sovereign Author of my spirit, my soul, and my heart! be Thou blessed for ever and in all places, because Thou hast permitted man, Thine ungrateful and criminal creature, to recover these sublime truths. Had the memory of Thine ancient and sacred covenant bound not Thy love to restore them, they would have been lost unto man for ever. Praise and benediction to Him who hath formed man in His image and after His own likeness, who, despite all the endeavours and all the triumphs of hell, hath reclothed him in his splendour, in the wisdom and the beatitudes of his origin. Amen.
Men of peace and men of aspirations! let us contemplate in unison, with a holy fear, the vastness of the mercies of our God. Let us confess to Him together that all the thoughts of men, all their purest desires, all their ordered deeds, could not, when combined, approach the smallest act of His love. How should we therefore express it? for it is confined to no individual deeds or times, but manifests at once all its treasures, and that in a constant, universal, and unhindered way! God of truth and God of love! so actest Thou daily with man. Amidst all mine infection and vileness Thy hand untiring extracts what still remains of those precious and sacred elements of which Thou didst form me at first. Like the thrifty woman in the Gospel consuming her light to recover the dime which she lost, Thy lamps are ever lighted, ever Thou stoopest to earth, ever hopest to recover from the dust that pure gold which has slipped from Thy hands.

Men of peace! how should we contemplate otherwise than with holy fear the extent of the mercies of our God! We are a thousand times more guilty towards Him than, in the sight of human justice are those malefactors who are dragged through cities and public places, loaded with the insignia of infamy, and forced to confess their crimes aloud at the doors of the temples and in the presence of the powers which they have defied. Like them, and a thousand times more deservedly than they, should we be dragged ignominiously to the feet of all the powers of Nature and the Spirit; we should be paraded like criminals through all the regions of the universe, both visible and invisible, and should receive in their presence the terrible and shameful chastisements which are invoked by our appalling prevarications.

But in place of finding stern judges armed with vengeance, behold a venerable Monarch whose eyes publish His clemency, whose lips utter pardon only for all those who do not blindly hold themselves guiltless. Far from willing that we should wear henceforth the vestments of opprobrium, He commands His servants to give back to us our primeval robe, to set a ring on our finger and shoes on our feet. For all these favours it is enough, like later prodigal sons, to confess that we have not found in the house of strangers the happiness of the house of the Father. Men of peace! say, shall we contemplate except with holy fear the infinite love and mercy of our God? Say, shall we not make a holy resolution to remain faithful for ever to His laws and to the beneficent counsels of His wisdom?

O God! incomprehensible in indulgence and past understanding in love, I can love but Thee alone; I would love none but Thee, who hast forgiven me so much. I desire no place of repose except in the heart of my God, who embraces all by His power, my support on every side, my succour and my consolation. From this divine source all blessings pour on me at once. He pours Himself into the heart of man continually and for ever. So does He engender within us His own life; so does He establish within us the pure rays and extracts of His own essence, whereon He loves to brood, and they become in us the organs of His endless generations. From this sacred treasury, through all the faculties of our nature, He directs kindred emanations, which repeat in turn their action through all that constitutes ourselves, and thus our spiritual activity, our virtues, our lights are unceasingly multiplied. Behold, it is exceeding profitable to erect Him a temple in our hearts!

O men of peace! O men of aspiration! say, shall we contemplate without a holy fear the vastness of the love and of the mercies and of the powers of our God?

How should it be possible, O Lord, to sing here below the canticles of the Holy City? Amidst such streams of tears, can we raise the hymns of jubilation? I lift up my voice to begin them, but I utter sighs only and tones of pain. I am overwhelmed by the length of my sufferings; my sin is ever before me, threatening instant death, with the chill of its poisons freezing all my being. Even now it lays hold of my members; the moment comes when I shall lie like a corpse which is left by hirelings to putrefaction. Yet Thou, O Lord, who art the universal source of all that exists, art also the font of hope. If this spark of flame be not already quenched in my heart, I still cling unto Thee, I am still bound to Thy divine life by that deathless hope which springs forever from Thy throne. From the depth of my abyss I dare therefore to implore Thee, to pray that the hand of Thy loving-kindness may heal me. How are the cures of the Lord effected?

By humble submission to the wise counsel of the Divine Physician. With gratitude and ardent desire must I drink the bitter draught which His hand offers; my will must be joined with that which animates Him towards me; the length and sufferings of the treatment must not prompt me to reject the good which the Supreme Author of all goodness seeks to effect in me. He is penetrated with the sense of my sufferings, and I have only to been kindled myself with the sense of His loving interest; then shall the chalice of salvation profit me; then shall my tongue be strengthened to sing the canticles of the Holy City.

Lord, with what hymn shall I begin? With one to His honour and glory who has restored me to health and effected my deliverance. From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same will I chant this canticle over all the earth, not only to celebrate the power and love of my Liberator, but to communicate to all desiring souls, to the entire human family, the certain and efficacious means of recovering health and life for ever. I will teach them thereby how the spirit of wisdom and truth may abide in their own hearts and direct them in all their ways. Amen.
My soul hast thou strength to consider the enormity of that debt which guilty man has contracted with Divinity? If thou hast found strength for crime, thou hast good reason to contemplate it in all its horror. Measure, therefore, in thy thought the vineyard of the Lord; remember that man should tend it; conceive the wealth of the harvest which it should produce under his care; think how all creatures under heaven await their sustenance from its culture by thee, that the vineyard of the Lord awaits in like manner its adornment at thy hands, that the Lord Himself awaits from thy fidelity and watchfulness all the praise and glory which should accrue from the fulfilment of His plans. But thou hast fallen; the dominion of the enemy upon thee; thou hast made barren the Lord's ground, brought the dwellers therein to want, and filled God's heart with sadness. Thou hast dried up the source of wisdom and of increase in this lower world, and still thou dost hinder daily the productions of the Lord. Consider the extent of thy debt, the impossibility of its payment.

The fruits of each year are owing from the moment of thine infidelity, the wages of all the hours which have passed since that fatal hour. Where is the being who shall acquit thee in the sight of that eternal justice whose dues cannot be cancelled, whose designs must attain their fulfilment? Herein, O God supreme, are exhibited the torrents of Thy mercy and the inexhaustible abundance of Thine eternal treasures. Thy heart is opened towards Thy hapless creature: not only his debts are discharged, but a surplus remains with which he may succour the needy. Thou hast ordained Thy Word itself to cultivate the vineyard of man: that sacred Word whose soul is love has come down into this barren place; the fire of His speech has consumed all the parasitic and poisonous plants which choked it; He has sown the seed of the tree of life in their place; He has opened up health-giving springs, and it has been moistened by living waters, He has restored strength to the beasts of the earth, wings to the birds of heaven, light to the starry torches, sound and speech to every spirit which abides in the sphere of man.

To the soul of man itself He has restored that love of which He alone is the source, which has inspired His holy and wonderful sacrifice. Eternal God of all praise and grace, one only being, Thy Son Divine, could thus repair our disorders and acquit us in the sight of Thy justice. The creative being alone could make restitution of that which we squandered, for it needed a new creation. If, therefore, O universal powers! ye strive to chant His praises who has reinstated you in your rights and restored your activity, what thanks are not due from me, since He has become the hostage for my debts Himself towards you, to all my brethren, and has discharged all? It was said of the penitent woman that much was forgiven her because she had loved much But for man all has been remitted, not only prior to his love, but while he was steeped in the horrors of ingratitude. O men! O brethren! let us give ourselves wholly to Him who has begun by forgiving all to us.

Each one of God's movements is universal and is manifested in every universe. Now, like unto this God supreme, be the movement of love universal in all our nature, at once embracing all the faculties which compose us. Amen.
The Psalm of 72 verses
(Shem – ham – phorash)

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

(Philippians, 2.9-11)

It is the tradition of the Greek RCO to invoke the Holy Name of Jesus by means of the Psalm of Shem-Ham-Phorash; so, they insert the Name "יהושUA" or simply "Jesus" right after every occurrence of the word "LORD". (In the text that follows, the exact position is designated by the letter "י".")

After each verse, the sacred exclamation "J.C.V." is recited.

The healing technique of the Theurgic Breath

Introduction

The Theurgic Breath is a particularly efficacious healing procedure. It is also discreet. It is an application of the universal law of Coagulation and Dissolution ("Coagula – Solve") on the ethereal and spiritual plane.

The law of Coagulation and Dissolution is really universal in human life. For example, when we want to put a nail on the wall, we first coagulate energy by moving our hand towards the opposite direction (Coagula) and then we dissolve it to the desired target (Solve). If we want to buy something, we first concentrate the necessary capital (Coagula) and then we direct it to the seller (Solve).

On the ethereal plane the functions of Coagulation and Dissolution are related to breathing.

On the spiritual plane Coagulation and Dissolution are accomplished by means of the Logos (or Word) – not by the Speech, but by the spiritual virtue of the Logos, which is the expression of the spiritual virtue of Will.\footnote{The Logos is above or behind the speech. The Logos is normally manifested by the speech, but also by the thought, by the gesture or even by the glance. \textbf{The Logos always conveys a will.}}
• When the Logos is directed towards the above and the inside, it coagulates energy.
• When the Logos is directed towards the below and the outside, it dissolves energy.

The technique

In the domain of healing, the above are applied thus:

The Healer places his palms on the head of the patient. He inhales slowly and deeply, in 4 times, saying inwardly the sacred phrase:

“Kyrie Jesu Christe Eleison.”

By this action the Coagulation is accomplished.

Afterwards he exhales in 4 times, directing a current of cool air to the forehead of the patient, while saying inwardly:

“Jesus Christus Vincit Semper”.

By this action the Dissolution is accomplished.

This procedure is repeated at least 9 times.

Then he blows three times on the forehead of the patient, abruptly but always with a current of cool air, saying inwardly:

“Amen! Amen! Amen!”
Explanation

During the phase of inhalation, the Healer imprints his Logos on the air (actually in the inhaled psychic fluid). His Logos is addressed to The Divine Logos, the Universal Healer, asking for His intervention; and – like the Sun – God never denies to send his benevolent radiance.

If he wants to enhance this effect of imprinting, the Healer may hold his breath in for 4 times, reciting the same sacred phrase:

“Kyrie Jesu Christe Eleison.”

Then the current of air is directed to one of the major entrances of psychic fluid (of the patient): the frontal lobe. From there it is distributed as needed by the patient’s organism.

The sacred exclamation “Jesus Christus Vincit Semper” enhances the effect of Dissolution; it is like a command that originates from God and not from man.

(After the exhalation, the healer does not hold his breath outside).

After the 9 reiterations, the whole procedure is concluded by the three abrupt blows, that are like small “explosions” of psychic fluid, imprinted with the word of command “Amen!”.

However, it has to be noted that this is not the only explanation of this technique; other aspects – regarding the circulation of the psychic current through the hands – might be taken into consideration as well; but we may not speak freely about these.

Applications

The above technique can be applied in three different ways:

a. As described, in presence of the patient, out of any ritual context;

b. It can be included in the frame of the basic healing operation;

c. It can be celebrated as an independent ritual operation; in this case, the technique is preceded by the Invocation - Header and an hagiographical citation, and it is followed by the usual footer of all operations.

Hagiographical Citation:

“And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”

\[114\] Gen. 1.7.
